

Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas! BD menu copy

{Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas! BD menu copy}
{Creative Director: Kim King} {Menu Designer: OPC}
{Special Features: Michael Crawford}
{Copy Due: 021910 Copy Delivered: 021010}
{Original page count: 12}

{Editor's note: everything bold is hot/selectable. Information within brackets { } is NOT to be printed. Andrew responsible for everything (including navigation) except chapter names and names of special feature titles. Also, Andrew did NOT produce any of the special features. He did, however, write Who's Who in Whoville and the bios.}

Play Movie Languages Special Features []

Language Settings

Spoken Languages

English

Subtitles

English (for the Hearing Impaired)

Off

Play Movie Languages Special Features []

Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas! BD menu copy

{Special Features} {Descriptors go under the EC pieces.}

Behind the Story

Dr. Seuss and the Grinch –
From Whoville to Hollywood

Discover the amazing Dr. Seuss and his creation of the book How the Grinch Stole Christmas! – and how this all-time classic was adapted into the famous Christmas TV special.

Grinch Pencil Test

Drawings of Grinch storyboards.

Songs in the Key of Grinch

Featurette on the songs and voices in this famous Christmas TV special.

Grinch Song Selections

Play All

Opening Song

Trim Up the Tree

Welcome, Christmas

You're a Mean One, Mr. Grinch

Making Animation and Bringing it to Life

Commentary by Animator

Phil Roman and Voice-Over Actor June Foray

Who's Who in Whoville

Biographies on Creator/Writer Theodor S. (Dr. Seuss) Geisel, Director Chuck Jones, Narrator Boris Karloff and June Foray, the voice of Cindy-Lou Who.

TNT's "How the Grinch Stole Christmas" Special Edition

A historic look at the Grinch with the late Phil Hartman as he takes you through the production team.

Trailers

Play All

Peanuts™ Holiday Collection

Classic Christmas Favorites

Online

Visit us at warnerblu.com for the latest on Warner Blu-ray Disc™

Play Movie Languages Special Features []

Who's Who in Whoville

Chuck Jones

Dr. Seuss

Boris Karloff

June Foray

<Features

Chuck Jones

Born on September 21, 1912 in Spokane, Washington, Chuck Jones entered the fledgling animation industry as a cel washer for the Ubbe Iwerks Studio. In 1936, he joined the Leon Schlesinger Studio that was later sold to Warner Bros.

He remained at Warner Bros. Animation until the division closed in 1962.

<Who's Who

Features

Next>

Chuck Jones

In 1966, while heading up the animation division of MGM Studios, he began a long friendship with Dr. Seuss and directed one of the most memorable of all holiday television specials. "How the Grinch Stole Christmas!," which first aired on Sunday, December 18, 1966.

<Back

Who's Who

Next>

Chuck Jones

Jones received an honorary Academy Award[®] in 1995 for the creation of classic cartoons “whose animated lives have brought joy to our real ones for more than half a century.” His first, in 1965 was for Best Short Subject, The Dog and the Line.

His famous characters include Wile E. Coyote, the Road Runner and Pepe Le Pew among a host of others.

<Back

Who's Who

Dr. Seuss>

Dr. Seuss

Dr. Seuss was born Theodore Seuss Geisel on March 2, 1904 in Springfield, Massachusetts. After attending Dartmouth College and Oxford University, he began a career in advertising.

His first children's book And to Think I Saw It on Mulberry Street, appeared on the market in 1937 (after being rejected by the first 43 publishers!).

<Who's Who

Features

Next>

Dr. Seuss

In 1957, the book The Cat in the Hat was published and forever changed the world of children's literature.

In his lifetime, Dr. Seuss authored and illustrated 44 children's books, won a Pulitzer Prize in 1984.

Although many have called him a genius, he always insisted that he was "just lucky."

<Back

Who's Who

Boris Karloff>

Boris Karloff

Born William Henry Pratt on November 23, 1887 in Dulwich, England, Boris Karloff was educated at London University.

After immigrating to Canada in 1909 and working as a farm hand, he made his screen debut in The Dumb Girl of Portici in 1916.

<Who's Who

Features

Next>

Boris Karloff

Karloff's ominous, stage-trained voice aided him in making the transition from silent to sound movies. In 1934, he starred as the monster in Frankenstein, a role that had been turned down by Bela Lugosi. Karloff went on to star in hundreds of horror films.

<Features

Who's Who

June Foray>

June Foray

The voice of Cindy-Lou Who, June Foray is known as the Mel Blanc of female voice-over actors, and also brought life to “The Bullwinkle Show’s” Rocky and Natasha.

She is noted as having created the voices of dozens of Warner Bros. animated characters and, most recently, was the voice of Granny in Space Jam.

<Who's Who
